GRADUATE DIPLOMA IN PSYCHOLOGICAL SCIENCE

Get career ready: Expand your learning, advance your research and applied psychology skills

ABOUT THE COURSE

The Graduate Diploma in Psychological Science provides a fourth-year qualification to students who have completed, with a high level of academic achievement, a Curtin BSc Psychological Science degree, (or equivalent). It provides an essential transition from the theory-based undergraduate degree program to an application-oriented postgraduate training in Psychology and prepares students for more advanced studies at master's level.

STUDY AND CAREER PATHWAYS

On completion of this Diploma students will be able to:

- > Coordinate and evaluate psychological intervention programs in profit-making as well as in non-profit making organisations
- > Conduct quantitative and qualitative research as Research Assistants
- > Undertake a Master of Psychology (applied or research) and become eligible for registration as Professional Psychologists with the AHPC

Psychologists - Make a difference in the World!

- Conduct Research
